

BOTB - (Books Of The Bible) Game Instructions
Awesome Family Worship/Personal Study Card Game

Contents:

72 BOTB Playing Cards, Travel pouch, 1 die and (1) two minute Sand timer

Objective:

To have fun seeing how much you know and how little your opponents really know about their Bible all while laughing and scoring as many points in the process.

Ages: All (Kids, Teens, and Adults)

Players: 1-20

Methods of Playing:

Single - Personal Study

One on One - Family Worship (Uno Style)

Teams - (Family Feud Style)

Bonus Cards: There are 6 random bonus questions

Getting started:

Choose your method of playing Single/One on One/Teams.

Get comfortable, remove all electronic devices phones/tablets etc. and any Bibles nearby. This is a game for fun, so please NO cheating.

One on One:

Shuffle the deck really good. Each person rolls the die, the person with highest number gets to choose whether they want to read the questions or answers the question first. Once the question is read the 2 min. timer should be flipped to start countdown.

Teams:

Choose 2 team Captains. Each team Captain will roll the die. Remember the team Captain with the highest number goes first or has first right of refusal. (this means they choose for duration of the game.) Then one by one, each team Captain will alternate choosing team members. The team Captain with highest number gets to choose whether they prefer to read the questions or answers the question first. Each team will choose who will read, it can be any willing person on the team. After answering the questions, tally your score and then it's the other person/team's turn. Highest score when you stop playing wins. Remember to shuffle the deck and use the 2 minute timer once the question is read.
